

Manly Library presents

THE ARTIST'S WAY

UNLOCK YOUR CREATIVITY IN 12 WEEKS

DO YOU LONG TO BE MORE CREATIVE?

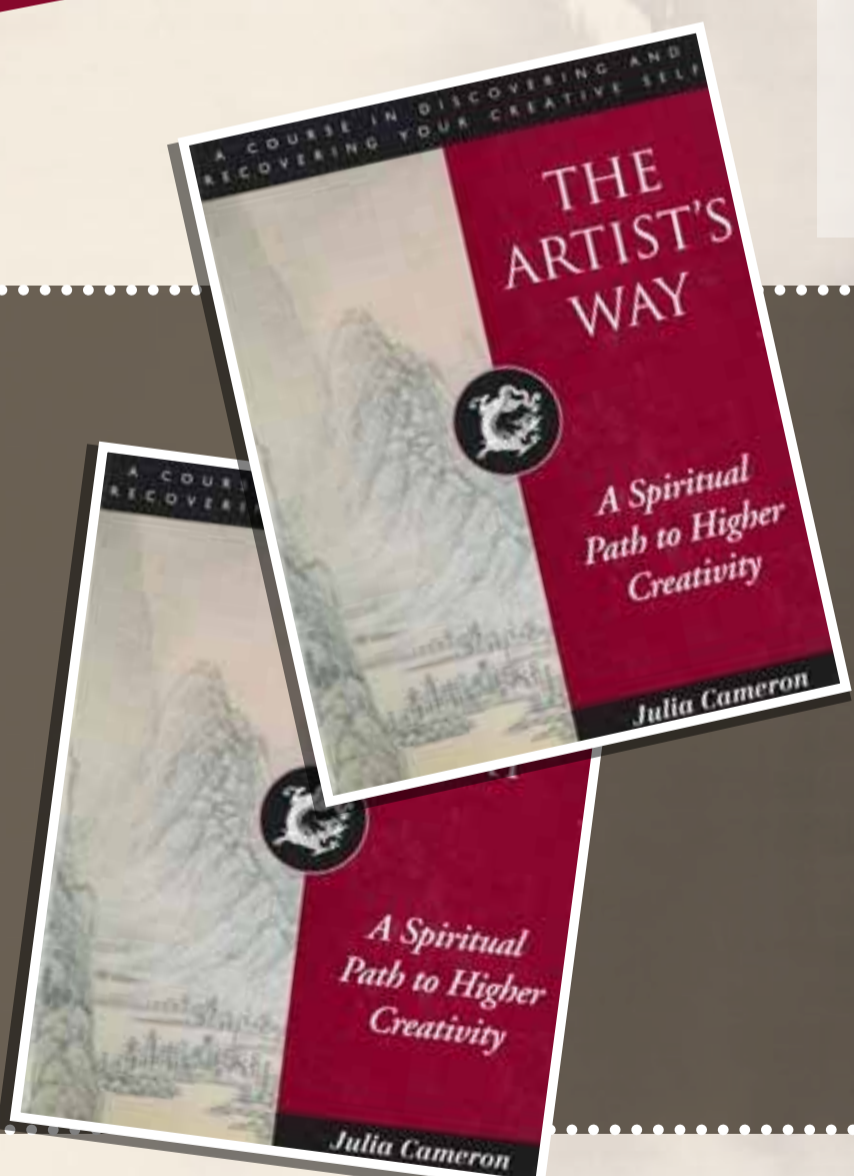

Or maybe you're an artist, musician, writer, or actor who has a number of creative successes, but now find yourself blocked? Or do you have a great idea, but are unable to bring it into being? Creativity is innate in every one of us.

The Artist's Way course, based on Julia Cameron's book of the same name, takes you on a powerful personal journey to help you move beyond your creative blocks.

Tackle procrastination, self-doubt and your inner critic, as well as beliefs about lack of time and worries about money.

Using practical tools, including the daily writing of 'morning pages' and a weekly 'artist's date', discover your path to greater creativity and allow it to blossom.

Packed with insights and inspiration, this course may be challenging, but it also has the potential to deeply transform you.

- DATE: Mon 4 March to Mon 27 May 2013
- TIME: Every Monday, 5.45pm - 7.45pm
- COST: $290 (Early Bird Rate $260 - up to 14 Feb)
Concession $240 (Early Bird Rate $220 - up to 14 Feb)
- LOCATION: Meeting Room, Manly Library
Market Place, Manly NSW 2095
- MORE INFO: To book or for more information contact
Rosamund Burton: rosamundburton@yahoo.com or phone 0412 818 470.
- NOTE: * Participants need to bring along a copy of The Artist's Way by Julia Cameron. The course is limited to 18 people.

ABOUT ROSAMUND BURTON

Rosamund Burton is an author and freelance journalist who has also worked as an actress. Her own path has been inspired by The Artist's Way, which she credits for helping her to move through many creative blocks and pursue her passion to write. For more information go to www.rosamundburton.com