

Do you long to be more creative? Or maybe you're an artist, musician, writer, or actor who has a number of creative successes, but now find yourself blocked? Or do you have a great idea, but are unable to bring it into being?

The Artist's Way

Unlock Your Creativity in 12 Weeks

The Artist's Way course, based on Julia Cameron's book of the same name, takes you on a powerful personal journey to help you move beyond your creative blocks. Tackle procrastination, self-doubt and your inner critic, as well as beliefs about lack of time and worries about money. Using practical tools, including the daily writing of 'morning pages' and a weekly 'artist's date', discover your path to greater creativity and allow it to blossom.

Creativity is innate in every one of us. Packed with insights and inspiration this course offers the opportunity to discover how to effectively express and channel your creativity. At times it may be challenging, but it also has the potential to deeply transform you.

Venue, dates and cost

Phoenix Rising Books | 31A Glebe Point Road | Glebe NSW 2037

Mon 10 Feb to Mon 5 May 2014, 6–8pm

$290.00 | Earlybird rate up to 10 Jan $260.00

To book or for more information:
Email service@phoenixrisingbooks.com or phone 02 9566 2157

Participants need to have their own copy of The Artist's Way by Julia Cameron. The course is limited to 12 people.

Course leader: Rosamund Burton is an author and freelance journalist who has also worked as an actress. Her own path has been inspired by The Artist's Way, which she credits for helping her to move through many creative blocks and pursue her passion to write. For more information go to www.rosamundburton.com

